

Candidate Identification Policy – Slovakia

(from November 2020)

1. The policy

Candidates taking any exams that are assessed remotely are required to provide a form of photographic identification documentation (photo ID).

- Graded Examination in Music Theory: Grades 1-5
- Certificate in Music Performance (Performance Grades) : Grades 6, 7, 8

A full list of the qualifications covered can be found in appendix A. Exams not listed above are not affected by this policy.

Candidates can use the following types of photo ID:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> National ID card | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Rail or transport card |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Passport | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Candidate Identification Form (please see appendix B and C) |
| <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> College or University ID card | |

2. What will happen on the day?

Performance Grades and ARSM (remote assessments)

At the beginning of your video recording, you should hold your photo ID up to the camera. This should be held for at least 5 seconds, making sure that the camera focuses on the ID document and that the photo is clear. You should then show your face to the camera for 5 seconds, to allow both images to be compared to confirm your identity.

Online Music Theory exams

At the beginning of your exam, you will be prompted to take a picture of your photo ID through your webcam. Once you have taken a clear photo of the ID, you should confirm this photo on the system. You will then be prompted to take a photo of yourself. Both photos will be compared to confirm your identity.

3. Why do I need to provide photo ID?

We are required by our regulators to take all reasonable steps to ensure we identify the candidates who take our exams at the time of the assessment. This is particularly important for qualifications which may be used to enter for other qualifications or as part of a university or employment application.

4. Impersonating a candidate – malpractice

If anyone is found to be impersonating a candidate, in an attempt to take the exam on the candidate's behalf, this will be investigated as potential malpractice in line with the ABRSM Malpractice and Maladministration Policy. This is considered a serious academic offence and penalties for a proven case can include disqualification of the candidate from ABRSM exams and being barred from entering future ABRSM exams for a specified period of time. For further information, please refer to the ABRSM Malpractice and Maladministration Policy.
